Australia

Requirements to apply for APPA membership

- A completed application form
- A letter on your accountant's letterhead verifying that the applying company has a turnover in excess of $100,000 per annum
- A written reference from an APPA member with whom you have an existing business relationship (email correspondence acceptable)
- A company profile (additional information may be required such as examples of the company's marketing, or information about policies)
- APPA membership is probationary for one year. Your membership status will be reviewed throughout the course of the year. If, at any time during the probationary period, the APPA National Board deems your company is no longer suitable for membership, APPA reserves the right to cancel your membership without notice. If your membership is cancelled by APPA, APPA will offer the company a refund, on a pro-rata basis reflective of the time the membership was held.

WHO IS APPA?

The Australasian Promotional Products Association (APPA) was established in 1986 to promote the development and good standing of that segment of the Advertising Industry concerned with the manufacture, distribution, and application of Promotional Products - in accordance with business practices and ethics that meet the highest industry and community standards.

THE AIMS OF APPA

- To develop and encourage high standards of ethical business practice within the industry.
- To provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and experiences through our website, events, education, marketing, activities, and publications.
- To promote profitable growth for the industry.
- To publicly represent industry views and concerns.
- To create a better understanding of promotional products advertising and its importance through an active public relations program.
- To recognise outstanding accomplishments in promotional products advertising.
- To promote understanding and improve knowledge of our industry through Tertiary Institutions.

THE BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- The Association will provide access to the APPA website with many associated benefits.
- Participation in APPA Service Provider Discounts including courier services, freight, business insurances, recruitment, and more.
- Participation in APPA Search and APPA Blue Book (a program offering thousands of dollars in discounts for Distributors)
- A forum for discussing topical industry issues and interfacing with APPA members.
- Promotion of APPA members to end users and to Distributors as credible trading partners.
- The opportunity to exchange ideas and discuss relevant industry issues with other members.
- The opportunity to participate in association functions, trade shows, educational programs, and publications.
- A magazine, website, and education sessions vital to the promotional products industry.
- Use of logo on business cards, letters, etc.
