ADVERTISING WITH APPA

APPA offers a diverse array of advertising opportunities tailored to serve our members. These opportunities provide targeted exposure to the right audience, ensuring maximum reach and impact for these members and their brands.

Partnering with APPA allows members to showcase their products and services to a highly engaged community and grow their business, brand and reputation in the promotional products industry.

Members of APPA are invited to reserve advertising space in the Association's fortnightly newsletter, tri-annual magazine, product catalogues and annual directory. Members are also provided the opportunity to communicate directly with APPA's database of industry professionals by means of a sponsored EDM (Electronic Digital Marketing).

Please contact APPA Communications Manager Kirsten Fisers at kirsten@appa.com.au to further discuss the advertising opportunities listed in this document.
